

The lower the admission category, the steeper the individual climb

Each thin line is one patient; the thick line is the group mean. Every group mean rises — and no patient changed category downward.

