

Proportional recovery peaks in the severe band — not at the extreme of impairment

Share of each patient's available margin that was regained, against the Barthel on admission. Faint dots are patients; the large markers are the pooled value per category. The most impaired group recovers the smallest share of its own margin, so the relationship is a peak, not a straight line.

Floor effect and profound deficit both plausible in the BI <20 group; these data cannot separate them.